2. Political and Humanitarian Repercussions:

The period covered by this report witnessed a significant escalation against displaced individuals through several massacres committed by the occupation army. Between Sunday, May 26, and Monday, May 27, 72 displaced individuals were killed within 48 hours, resulting from three massacres in areas previously declared safe by the occupation army, located in the north and west of Rafah Governorate. The use of precision bombs in these attacks confirms a premeditated intent to commit genocide.

In a related context, the occupation army's crimes in the northern Gaza Strip were revealed, showing a deliberate continuation of the forced displacement of Palestinian civilians. This was achieved through the comprehensive destruction of essential living necessities, housing, and survival infrastructure, particularly in the Jabalia camp. This included the erasure of entire residential areas, medical and food centers, as well as the complete and partial destruction of United Nations shelter centers.
